

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA
BEFORE THE FLORIDA JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION

CASE NO. SC13-1333

INQUIRY CONCERNING A JUDGE
NO. 12-613

RE: LAURA WATSON

NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL FILING (SECOND PRIVILEGE LOG LATE PRODUCED BY THE FLORIDA BAR ON MAY 4, 2015)

The Honorable Laura M. Watson, by and through undersigned counsel, hereby gives notice of filing of the privilege log provided by The Florida Bar on May 4, 2015, of which this Court is requested to take judicial notice and says:

1. On May 4, 2015, The Florida Bar produced to undersigned counsel a privilege log consisting of an additional 418 documents not previously identified by The Florida Bar pursuant to subpoena served on November 15, 2013. (Exhibit A) None of these documents were disclosed to Judge Watson at the time Mr. Coxe certified to the Chair of the JQC on January 17, 2014, “There is nothing in the universe that the Florida Bar (“Bar”) essentially has that relates to Judge Watson that hasn’t been produced.”

2. The newly asserted privileged documents include at least twenty email strings where the Bar purports to claim a privilege for providing “legal advice” in communications between the Bar's counsel and the JQC special counsel. (See privilege log entries P000139, P000150, P000152, P000153, P000171 – P000173, P000178, P000180, P000184, P000237, P000240, P000247, P000250, P000291, P000300, P000301, P000304, P000320 and P000343.)

3. None of the documents now scheduled between the Bar and JQC were produced by the JQC when it produced a copy of the Bar file it claimed to have received. The JQC listed none of the communications between the Bar and JQC on any privilege log.

4. The Florida Bar and the JQC are two independent bodies with their own independent counsel. No privilege exists, and if it did exist the JQC waived it long ago by failing to disclose its receipt of and the existence of these documents and to prepare a privilege log. Moreover, one wonders why The Florida Bar was involved in the JQC's independent prosecution of a sitting judge, and whether these e-mails were withheld until after the final hearing to conceal this very fact. Providing a privilege log containing over 400 alleged privileged documents a year and a half after service of the subpoena and fourteen months after the final hearing in this cause raises serious concerns whether through inadvertence or design Judge Watson was deprived of her due process right of discovery.
